September 10, 2009

Dear Mr. Ervin,

On behalf of the Board of Directors and more than 800 member companies, it is my sincere pleasure to welcome you as a member of the American Chamber of Commerce in Russia. Founded in 1994, the Chamber is the largest foreign business organization in Russia, advocating the trade and investment interests of its member companies.

By providing a broad scope of services, platforms, advocacy initiatives, up-to-date information on laws and regulations, and direct contact with leading American, Russian, and international government officials and business leaders, we work to ensure a return on your membership fee investment.

We are very pleased that you have joined the Chamber, and I personally look forward to speaking with you and seeing you at our many events. I hope that you will take full advantage of all that your new membership offers.

Sincerely,

Andrew B. Somers
President
